

LeMoyne-Owen
COLLEGE

LEADERSHIP. OPPORTUNITY. CHANGE.

CELEBRATES NATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE MONTH

MARCH 2

“Domestic Violence” with Jordan Moore
11:00am - GOH 111

March 9

“Murder in Memphis” with Major
Darren Goods
11:00am
&
MPD Director Mike Rallings
Noon
GOH 111

March 16

“State of the Memphis Police” with
Michael Williams, President, Memphis
Police Association
11:00am - GOH 111

March 29

Criminal Justice Education/Career Fair
9:00am - 11:30am
Student Center

ASAP Criminal Justice Luncheon
12:00pm – 1:30pm
Dorothy Harris Lounge

March 30

“The Courts and Minorities” with
Judge Lee Coffee
11:00am - GOH 111

April 6

Black on Black Crime Forum
6:00pm - The Little Theater

Join the LeMoyne-Owen College Criminal Justice Department for a series of thought-provoking lectures and presentations designed to raise awareness of and spark meaningful dialogue about crime and criminal justice in Memphis

DID YOU KNOW?

FACT: In 2009 the United States Congress established March as National Criminal Justice Month.

FACT: One in six African Americans has been incarcerated.

FACT: Approximately 11 million individuals are arrested annually (3,700 per 100,000).

FACT: The Criminal Justice system is a multi-billion dollar industry.

FACT: The Criminal Justice System is comprised of Law Enforcement, Courts and Corrections.