

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA CONTACT: Daphne Thomas, Public Relations & Marketing Director
(901) 435-1539 or (901) 220-3098

Residents Invited to Celebrate Black History at the 7th Annual Harambee Festival at LeMoyne-Owen College

The Harambee Festival wraps up LeMoyne-Owen College's Black History Month celebration. Residents will enjoy live music, dance, fun science experiments and more.

LeMoyne-Owen College wraps up a month-long celebration of African American History Month with its 7th annual Community Harambee Festival Saturday, Feb. 25, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Bruce Hall gymnasium, 807 Walker Ave. "Harambee" means pulling together in Kiswahili and has become a word that connects African and African American history and culture.

WHO: LeMoyne-Owen College
WHAT: 7th Annual Harambee Festival
WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 25th, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.
WHERE: Bruce Hall/Johnson Gymnasium on the campus of LeMoyne-Owen College, 807 Walker Ave. 38126
BACKGROUND: Free and open to the public. This event is designed with families in mind. LeMoyne-Owen College faculty, staff, students and special guests will perform, inspire and educate. The festival will feature dance performances, a marketplace of hand-crafted items and displays on science and health and international issues.

For more information: www.loc.edu

