

LeMoyne-Owen COLLEGE

LEADERSHIP. OPPORTUNITY. CHANGE.

Rev. Jesse Jackson made a quick visit to the LeMoyne-Owen College campus Monday (April 2, 2018), taking a few minutes to pose for photos and to, among other things, urge students to register to vote, and then vote.

Jackson, founder of Rainbow/PUSH, is Memphis this week as part of the MLK50 events marking the 50th anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in Memphis on April 4, 1968.

Jackson was an aide to King, who had come to Memphis to help the striking sanitation workers, and he witnessed the assassination.
