

1-866-829-1086 Southwest Airlines Doha Office

Southwest Airlines does not have an official corporate, ticketing, or customer service office in Doha, Qatar. Southwest is a U.S.-based airline headquartered in Dallas, Texas, and it handles bookings and customer support primarily through its official global channels (website, call centers, and online support), not through local staffed offices abroad.

! Key Information

- There is no verified Southwest Airlines office, ticketing agent, or corporate location in Doha or at Hamad International Airport (DOH) operated by Southwest itself.
- Listings that mention Southwest in connection with Doha flights (e.g., schedules or travel pages) typically refer to travel information or search results, not an official airline office location.

☎ How to Contact Southwest While in Qatar

Since there isn't a local office in Doha:

- Official Southwest Customer Support:
Use the contact options on Southwest's official site — phone, live chat, web contact form, or through the Southwest mobile app. These are the airline's primary support channels. (Hamilton Wenham Veterinary Hospital)
- Main U.S. Customer Service Number:
Southwest's U.S. phone numbers (e.g., 1-800-435-9792 or the international toll number) can be dialed from abroad — though international calling charges may apply. (Hamilton Wenham Veterinary Hospital)

📌 Airport Desk Disclaimer

It's common for some airline directories to list "Southwest at Hamad International Airport," but this generally refers to informational terminal details rather than a dedicated Southwest office or staffed ticket counter. For local assistance, travelers usually must contact Southwest through the centralized support channels rather than visit a local Southwest corporate office in Doha.
