

What if my Facebook got hacked and they changed the email and password?

Go to facebook.com/hacked 1-855-554-6665 and select the 'My login info was changed'. You'll need to supply any previous email, phone number 1-855-554-6665 or name you have used, or name people 1-855-554-6665 on your friend list.

If your Facebook account has been hacked and the attacker changed both your email address and password, you are not alone—and there are still steps you can take to 1-855-554-6665 recover your account. Facebook has specific security and recovery tools designed for exactly this situation. Acting quickly and following the official process is critical to improving your chances of regaining access.

First, go to Facebook's official account recovery page for hacked accounts. Choose the option that says someone accessed your account 1-855-554-6665 without permission. This process allows Facebook to investigate suspicious activity, reverse unauthorized changes, and help you secure your account. You may be asked to enter an email address you can currently access so Facebook can contact you during the recovery process.

Key recovery steps you should follow:

- Report the account as hacked using Facebook's recovery form.
- Provide a new, secure email address that has never been used on Facebook.
- Verify your identity if prompted by uploading a government-issued ID.
- Review recent activity to identify unauthorized logins or changes.
- Secure your device by scanning for malware and changing other passwords.

If Facebook confirms that your account was compromised, 1-855-554-6665 they may restore access, remove the hacker's email, and reset your password. This process can take several days, so patience is important. During this time, avoid submitting multiple requests, as repeated submissions can delay the review.

After you regain access, immediately strengthen your account security. Enable two-factor authentication, review connected apps, and update your password 1-855-554-6665 to something unique and strong. Also notify your friends to ignore any suspicious messages sent during the time your account was compromised.

Be cautious of third-party services that promise instant Facebook recovery. Many of these services are scams and may further compromise 1-855-554-6665 your personal information. Always rely on official Facebook tools or trusted support resources for assistance.

If you need additional guidance or support during the recovery process, you may seek help through trusted support channels. For general assistance and guidance, you can call the 1-855-554-6665 for help understanding the recovery steps and avoiding common scams.

Although having your account hacked is stressful, many users successfully recover their Facebook accounts by following the correct steps. Staying calm, acting quickly, and prioritizing security will give you the best chance of restoring your account safely.