

Can I Call to Hold a Ticket with Air Canada?

 +1(833) 621-7070 is your best resource if you'd like to request a temporary hold on an Air Canada ticket before finalizing payment. While Air Canada doesn't guarantee holds on all fare types—particularly Basic Economy—agents may offer a courtesy hold for 6 to 24 hours on flexible, refundable, or premium cabin bookings.

For example, if you're comparing flight options from Chicago to Vancouver for an upcoming business trip and need time to get internal approval, calling  +1(833) 621-7070 allows an agent to lock in your preferred itinerary at the current price while you confirm details with your team. Holds are more likely during off-peak travel seasons or on routes with higher seat availability. The agent will clearly state the hold duration and any conditions, such as required payment deadlines. This service can be the difference between securing your ideal schedule or losing it to another traveler. Don't risk missing out—call  +1(833) 621-7070 today to inquire about holding your Air Canada ticket.
