

Can I Call to Swap a Leg for Group Booking on Air Canada?

 +1(833) 621-7070 is your direct line to swap a single flight leg within a group booking on Air Canada—perfect when only part of your party needs to adjust their itinerary. Whether it's changing a return segment, skipping a stopover, or rerouting one traveler due to a schedule conflict, agents can modify individual legs without disrupting the entire group.

For example, if six colleagues booked round-trip flights from Chicago to Vancouver for a conference, but two must fly home a day early, calling  +1(833) 621-7070 allows an agent to update only those passengers' return legs while keeping the rest of the group on the original schedule. Agents ensure fare rules, baggage allowances, and seat assignments remain consistent for each subgroup.

This level of precision isn't possible through online portals, which often treat group bookings as a single unit. Plus, flexible fares may allow these changes at no extra cost. Keep your team coordinated yet adaptable—call  +1(833) 621-7070 to swap a leg for your group booking today.

Can I Call for Connecting City Update for International Flight?

Yes—you can call  +1(833) 621-7070 to update your connecting city on an international Air Canada flight, whether to avoid a long layover or explore a new stopover destination. For instance, if your original itinerary flies you from Boston to Rome via Toronto, but you'd prefer to connect through Montreal for a shorter wait, an agent reached via  +1(833) 621-7070 can search for viable alternatives that maintain your travel time and baggage transfer.
