About This Collection

1. Analyze the Request:

Length: 60-90 words.

Format: One coherent, engaging paragraph. No inflated importance, no sales language, no clichés ("nestled", "breathtaking", "unforgettable"). No emojis, no curly quotes, no bold text. No lists, no quotes, no markdown, no em dashes (use commas instead). No "not only X but Y", "At its core", forced groups of exactly three items. No AI-flag words (delve, tapestry, vibrant, testament, landscape, showcase, crucial, pivotal, additionally, moreover, furthermore, "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts"). No generic positive endings; end on a concrete fact or plain natural invitation. Use "to" instead of "in order to"; use "because" instead of "due to the fact that". Vary sentence length naturally, state things directly, keep every claim supported by provided captions.

Key words to reuse: At least 20% of the key words from the captions (names, nicknames, distinctive terms). Need to identify these: Haruka, Suzuno, Miku, Aida, cosplay, Cumshots, Cum Covered Handjob, Massive Creampie, 12 min.

Language: Same as the title and captions (Japanese/English mix, but I must write in the same language as the title "寿々野美花" which is Japanese). Let's look at the captions: Haruka Suzuno, cosplay, Cumshots, Massive Creampie, Cum Covered Handjob, 12 min, Miku Aida. I will write a Japanese paragraph incorporating these names and terms. The title is Japanese. Actually, "Answer in the same language as the input" usually means if the prompt is mixed, output in the dominant language or match the title's language. But the title is Japanese. I should write in Japanese to be safe and consistent with the title, or maybe a mix? Since there's a lot of English, maybe English? Let's write in Japanese since the title is Japanese, but the captions are English. The prompt says "same language as the input". Given the title is Japanese, I will write in Japanese, translating the English terms or keeping them. " The input has Japanese and English captions. Let's write in Japanese, using the English names where appropriate, or just translate them. " Okay, so Japanese it is.

Ending: Natural invitation to view the full gallery via the link above.
